

A Prayer for July 21, 2020

Chaplain Dino Silvestrini, Westminster Point Pleasant, Bradenton

Father God, these are difficult and trying times for our world. And yet, we know as long as we put our faith and trust in You, all will be well.

As we walk our own personal roads to Calvary each day, give us the strength and conviction to know that we, too, can rise from our own graves and experience the power and glory of Your resurrection. With the challenges we face each day, we realize how redemptive suffering can purify and strengthen us to become more faith-filled individuals.

We pray for all those affected by this pandemic, their loved ones, and especially our Westminster employees and residents. We ask You, Lord, to be with all those who are ill, afraid, or in isolation. In their loneliness, be their consolation. In their anxiety, be their hope. In their darkness, be their light. Fill our hearts with compassion and empathy that we might care for ourselves and for others in ways that bring goodness and grace in the midst of distance.

In Christ's name we pray. AMEN
