

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Our collective voices can inspire hope. Let us share the faith and know we are in this together!

A Prayer for October 27, 2020

The Rev. Dr. Nancy E. Muth, Resident at Westminster Shores, St. Petersburg

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.”

Gracious and loving God, we pray for peace because our hearts are troubled and afraid. We pray for peace in our country and our communities during this time of racial tensions and political divides. We pray for peace within our own souls as we are anxious about our health and the health of our loved ones. We are troubled and afraid, yet we know you are the one who is the ultimate peace giver. You are the one who assures us saying, “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.” May we always trust in you and look to you for peace. “Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with you all.

Amen.
